SATELLITE-BASED GLANCE INTO THIS MORNING, THURSDAY 28 NOVEMBER 2024

Isolated thunderstorms occurred across much of the country yesterday, with the highest recorded rainfall amounts being 14 mm in Karoi and 6 mm in Chiredzi. Most areas experienced rainfall amounts of less than 1 mm. This morning, the northern and eastern parts of the country were partly cloudy and mild, while the rest of the country was under clear skies. By the afternoon, it was partly cloudy with isolated showers and warm conditions in most parts of the country.

WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR: FRIDAY 29 NOVEMBER 2024

Morning: Partly cloudy and mild conditions in all areas. Afternoon: Expect partly cloudy and hot weather in all areas, with a chance of isolated thunderstorms in the Mashonaland, Harare Metropolitan, and northern parts of Manicaland provinces. In southern parts of the country, it is expected to be cloudy and warm.

Overnight: Partly cloudy and mild warm over much of the country.

IMPACTS & ACTIONS TO TAKE:

- When thunder roars it is best to be indoors.
- Secure rooftops especially in schools as the rains may be accompanied by strong winds and hail in some places

WEATHER OUTLOOK FOR: SATURDAY 30 NOVEMBER 2024

Morning: Partly cloudy and mild conditions will prevail in the northern and eastern regions of the country. The rest of the areas should experience clear skies and cooler conditions.

Afternoon: Mostly sunny and hot conditions are anticipated over much of the country, but for all

Mashonaland and Harare Metropolitan

Provinces, it will be partly cloudy with a chance of isolated thundershowers.

Overnight: Clear skies and mild conditions.

Impacts & Actions to Take:

When thunder roars it is best to be indoors.
