

SATELLITE-BASED GLANCE INTO TODAY, TUESDAY 17 FEBRUARY 2026.

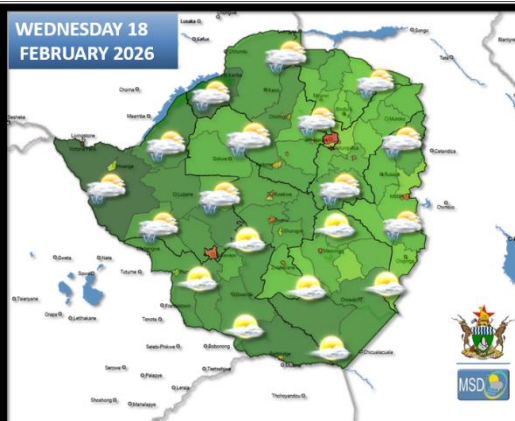

Today, isolated showers occurred over the northern and eastern parts of the country, although the rainfall amounts were less compared to those received over the previous days due to the cooling effect of the prevailing south-easterly winds.

These south-easterly winds resulted in cloudy, windy and mild conditions over Matabeleland South, Masvingo and Manicaland. As the day progressed, the winds died down.
